A close-up, chest-up shot of a woman with reddish hair, wearing a red bikini. She has a black tattoo of a queen of spades card on her left breast. She is looking down with her tongue sticking out and her hand near her mouth. A thought bubble above her head contains text. In the background, a neon sign is partially visible.

A comic book panel featuring Jessica Rabbit from Disney's "Who Framed Roger Rabbit". She is depicted in a highly sexualized manner, wearing a red, low-cut, backless dress. She has her signature red hair and is shown from the waist up, leaning back with her right hand on her head. A large, dark, muscular leg is visible on the right side of the frame, suggesting she is being held or restrained. The background is a simple, textured wall.

A woman with short, wavy red hair is shown from a high angle, leaning over a dark, textured surface. She is nude, wearing only red high-heeled sandals. Her hands, adorned with red nail polish, white and red beaded bracelets, and a ring, are resting on the surface. The setting is a dilapidated room with a toilet in the background and a bucket of trash to the right. Two speech bubbles are present: one from the woman and one from an unseen character.
